Re: Interview Questions For Your Thesis

Dear [Redacted]

b6 -2

The Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) received your submission on January 20, 2011 requesting prepublication review for your interview questions for you thesis.

The FBI's prepublication review policy provides for a review period of thirty business days not counting the day of receipt. This review period can be extended depending upon the complexity of the materials being reviewed, but in most cases the reviews are completed within the thirty business day period. A review of your submission is in progress and we will advise of the results upon completion.

Should you have any questions, please contact [Redacted] at 540-868-1697. Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

b6 -2

Dear [redacted]

b6 -2

This letter is in response to your February 9, 2011, request for approval to participate in a speaking engagement at [redacted] pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) (Manual of Administrative Operations and Procedures, Part I, 1-24).

b6 -2

Your request to speak and PowerPoint presentation are approved, subject to the following: Any discussion of matters concerning your official duties with the FBI may not involve pending cases, grand jury, classified, and other information, the disclosure of which could violate criminal laws or Department of Justice or FBI policy. In addition, please be advised that this approval should not be construed to permit the disclosure of:

- A. Information protected from agency disclosure by the Privacy Act;
- B. Information that is classified or the disclosure of which could otherwise harm national security;
- C. Information that reveals sensitive law enforcement, intelligence, or counterintelligence techniques, sources or methods; or that reveals the sensitive, confidential or proprietary techniques, sources, or methods of other agencies or entities;
- D. Information that would reveal grand jury material protected from disclosure by Rule 6(e) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure;
- E. Information that would reveal the identity of a confidential source or informant;

- F. Information that relates to any sensitive operational details or the substantive merits of any ongoing or open investigation, inquest, probe, prosecution, appeal, or case;
 - G. Information that consists of the proprietary information of another, including trading secrets;
 - H. Information pertaining to wiretaps or intercepts protected or regulated by Title III (Title 18, U.S.C., Sections 2510-2520);
 - I. Information pertaining to currency transaction reports regulated or protected by Title 31, U.S.C., Section 5319;
 - J. Tax return information regulated or protected by Title 26, U.S.C., Section 6103;
 - K. Information pertaining to contractor bids or proposals or source-selection information before the award of the procurement contract to which the information relates;
 - L. Information protected from disclosure by any other federal statute or regulation; or,
 - M. Information exempt from disclosure under the Freedom of Information Act (Title 5, U.S. C. Section 552) unless the material is clearly already in the public domain. (MAOP, Part I, 1-24 (5)(a)1)

Re: Manuscript: Street Agent

Dear Mr. Manis:

This letter is in response to the submission of your manuscript for review pursuant to the Federal Bureau of Investigation's (FBI) Prepublication Review Policy (PRP) and the Prepublication Review Manual (POL05-0001-RMD).

Based on our conversation of January 3, 2011 at 1 PM, and your representations, your manuscript has been approved by FBI Prepublication Review.

Before publication, please incorporate a disclaimer advising readers that the opinions expressed in the article are yours and not those of the FBI. In addition, you may include your past FBI employment as part of your biographical data, providing that the FBI is given no more emphasis than other similar biographical information.

We would like to thank you for your patience throughout this process. We apologize for the delay and would like to express our appreciation for your willingness to work with us towards a successful resolution.

Should you have any further questions, please do not hesitate to contact the prepublication office at 540-868-1697 or via e-mail at . Thank you for your participation in the FBI's prepublication review process.

Manuscript: "Street Agent"

On January 3rd, 2011 at 1 PM, a conference call was held in the office of Section Chief David M. Hardy of the FBI Records Management Division. Present on the call were SC Hardy, [REDACTED] (Interim Prepublication Reviewer), and the requester, former SA Mr. Wayne Manus.

b6 -2

SC Hardy discussed with SA Manus the areas of concern.

SA Manus said he had a list of approvals and authorizations he would send us, relating to names of third party individuals he used in the book.

It was determined the information concerning informant Charlie Messer was ok to release, as the informant had given this information in court in a public testimony.

It was also discussed that [REDACTED] has given a verbal authorization to be used in the book. SA Manus will attempt to obtain a written approval, and will fax a copy to Records Management Division. If he does not receive this, [REDACTED] name will be changed.

b6 -5
b7C -5
b7D -3

It was determined that the names and information regarding Al Mickler, Dolores Arnold, and Julie Walker were ok to release, as these individuals are deceased or their actions are well known.

It was agreed that information regarding [REDACTED] would be changed as not to identify [REDACTED] Mr. Manus agreed to change [REDACTED]

b7D -1

Lastly it was determined the information relating to how to obtain Title III information could be released, as this is known to the public.

Dave,

Per our conversation this past summer, I am officially sending you an Adobe PDF final DRAFT copy of my thesis for pre-publication review by Records Management Division (RMD). [REDACTED] cc'd above is my Thesis Advisor.

b6 -1

Long Island University (LIU), through which this FBI/CTD sponsored effort is administered, is aware of the RMD pre-pub requirement and will put on hold any further actions pending a reply and hopefully an all clear from RMD. The thesis is a reflection of my own work and relies solely upon open source materials for its compilation.

RMD's timely and thorough review of the thesis is much appreciated. Here is some background on the thesis:

No. of Pages: 124

No of Pages Left Intentional Blank: 14

No. of Words: 22,061

No of References: 92

No of Figures: 9

No of Tables: 16
